MEDIA ALERT

PANAMA CITY RESCUE MISSION HOLDS OPEN HOUSE THIS SUNDAY 2-4 P.M.

Mission Plans opens its doors to show the true heart of the Mission

- WHO: Panama City Rescue Mission staff, volunteers and program clients.
- WHAT: The annual open house “Open Hearts, Open Doors” to teach the community about the services provided to the homeless, hungry and hurting individuals of the Panama City area.
- WHERE: We are located at 609 Allen Ave, behind The Thrift Depot on the corner of 6th Street and Allen Avenue.
- WHEN Sunday, November 23, 2003, from 2-4 p.m.
- WHY The Mission so much more than a shelter and a place to eat Thanksgiving Dinner. We offer a long-term recovery program, “Power to Choose,” that provides the opportunity for men to make lasting changes in their lives and behavior that ensures success outside these walls. No longer will prison or the streets be an option. The community offers so much support and needs to know how each gift is used to change a life. “Open Hearts, Open Doors” is the Mission’s way of giving back to those who give so much to the Mission.

Event Highlights:

- Tours of Panama City Rescue Mission campus
- Interviews with staff, program clients and volunteers
