PANAMA CITY RESCUE MISSION PROVIDES HOPE AND A HOT MEAL THIS THANKSGIVING

Mission Plans to Serve 600 Meals Thanksgiving Day During the Great Thanksgiving Banquet

- WHO: Panama City Rescue Mission along with honorary chairperson Neysa Troutt of WJHG TV News-7 serving Panama City, Fl.
- WHAT: Locally, Panama City Rescue Mission will provide more than 600 traditional Thanksgiving meals to the needy in the Panama City area during The Great Thanksgiving Banquet. More than 275 Rescue Missions across the country will serve more than 500,000 meals for homeless or poverty stricken men, women and children of America. The national chairperson is actor John Tesh.
- WHERE: We are located at 609 Allen Ave, behind The Thrift Depot on the corner of 6th Street and Allen Avenue.
- WHEN Thursday November 27, 2003 from Noon to 6 p.m.
- WHY Each day Panama City Rescue Mission provides more than 300 meals to homeless and needy men, women and children. A meal is often the first contact we have with a person who needs help. It's often a time when they realize that they can achieve a better life and commit to leaving the street life through rehabilitation, education and job training. Thanksgiving is a great time to let the community know about the problems homeless men, women and children face each day.
