

“Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves, for the rights of all who are destitute. Speak up and judge fairly; defend the rights of the poor and needy.” Proverbs 31:8-9

A wise mother’s advice to a king about who to honor is as true today as when it was written. In the month of May we honor our mothers with a day, and on Memorial Day, those who gave their lives for our freedom. Proverbs 31 has wisdom we can all appreciate. Wisdom worth more than gold. Wisdom that reminds us we are all in this together.

Just imagine being homeless in these stressful times. The impact of homelessness on women is profound enough, but as a mother, many experience self-blame, sadness, shame, and hopelessness. While Mother’s Day is an opportunity to thank the special women in our life, it is also a chance to help those overcoming major adversities.

Your support will minister directly to the women in the Panama City Rescue Mission (PCRM) Life Transformation Program instilling them with confidence, dignity, and independence. You provide the path to recovery and restoration in their lives.

We honor those who have fallen. Those who made the ultimate sacrifice for others. Those in the nation’s armed forces who keep us from harm’s way. Those who defend others’ rights that need a voice.

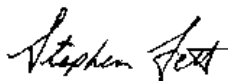

We honor Jesus Christ and His sacrifice for us. It is easy to forget the blessings we have when our situation looks less than ideal. We need to take a step back and remember the faithfulness of God.

We honor Your faithfulness. Because of your generosity, men and women in our community are moving from lives of suffering to lives of flourishing. This month, please remember our precious mothers, those in the military, and especially our Lord and Savior, the one who gave it all!

“Now that I am about to go the way of all the earth. You know with all your heart and soul that not one of all the good promises the LORD your God gave you has failed. Every promise has been fulfilled; not one has failed.” Joshua 23:14

Since 1973, the PCRM has been committed to Christ-centered rescue, recovery, and restoration. Thank you for your continued support to help those in need. You can donate online by visiting our website at www.pcrmission.org and clicking on the donate button.
